

Am I expected to make a monetary donation during the Offering?

At one point during worship, the ushers collect the Offering. The contributions collected during the Offering are used to support the worship, mission, and ministry of the church. Everyone is invited to make a donation; no one is expected to make a donation.